

1) TO CALL = chamar

Call after = nomear alguém em homenagem a outra pessoa.

They called their daughter after her grandmother.

Call back = retornar a ligação.

I must call her back when I get home.

Call for = requerer (exigir).

This work calls for a lot of patience.

Call in = chamar (convidar).

A specialist was called in to give an opinion on the matter.

Call off = cancelar.

The game was called off yesterday.

Call up = telefonar/convocar.

Call me up tomorrow morning, ok? He was called up to serve in the army.

2) TO COME = vir

Come across = encontrar por acaso / parecer de certa forma.

I came across some old friends of mine last night. She comes across as a very confident person.

Come down = descer.

Zac, come down from that tree now.

Come in = entrar/ser útil.

Please come in and take a seat. This is where your expertise comes in handy.

Come forward = apresentar-se.

The police are asking witnesses to come forward.

Come off = sair (desprender).

The blood stains that got stuck in my pants don't come off.

Come on = entrar em cena.

Finally the band came on stage.

Come out = sair / ser lançado.

Come out now, or we'll shoot you! Her book is coming out next month.

Come up = subir/surgir.

Come up to my office please! Some concerns came up yesterday.

Come up with = ter uma ideia.

He came up with a brilliant plan to solve the issue.

Come through = sobreviver/entregar resultados.

She came through the surgery with no complications. He always comes through when we need him.

3) TO GET = obter, adquirir

Get along with = ter um bom relacionamento com alguém.

I don't get along with my neighbor.

Get away = escapar.

My dog got away last night.

Get away with = safar-se.

She almost got fired, but she got away with that mistake from yesterday.

Get into = entrar em algo.

I need to get into my opponent's head.

Get off = descer.

Henry will get off this bus in the next stop, so you must talk to him now.

Get on = subir.

As soon as I get on that plane, I'm going to leave my past behind.

Get out = sair.

Get out of my room, right now!

Get over = superar algo.

It's time to get over that stupid guy.

Get over with = terminar.

Get over with that fight right now.

Get rid of = se livrar de algo.

We need to get rid of the old furniture.

4) TO GIVE = dar

Give away = doar.

She gave away all her old clothes.

Give back = devolver.

Give me back my English book.

Give in = ceder.

The pressure was huge, so she gave in.

Give off = exalar.

These flowers give off a very nice aroma.

Give up = desistir.

No matter what, I will never give up!

5) TO GO = ir

Go after = ir atrás (perseguir).

The police went after the thief.

Go away = ir embora.

Don't go away, I'll need you.

Go off = explodir / desativar.

The alarm went off in the middle of the night. The bomb went off ten minutes ago.

Go on = continuar.

The meeting went on for hours.

Go out = sair/apagar.

I love going out with my friends. The fire went out because of the rain.

Go over = revisar algo.

Let's go over the details before the presentation.

6) TO LOOK = olhar

Look after = cuidar de.

Chris is looking after the kids.

Look forward to = aguardar ansiosamente por algo.

I always look forward to the weekend. We're looking forward to meeting you.

Look down on = menosprezar.

Don't look down on your opponents.

Look for = procurar.

I'm looking for my cellphone.

Look into = examinar.

Don't worry - I'll look into my things.

Look out = tomar cuidado.

Look out! This neighborhood can be dangerous at night.

Look up = consultar.

Look up the dentist's number on the internet, please!

Look up to = admirar.

My grandfather is the person that I look up to the most.

7) TO MAKE = fazer

Make out = preencher / entender (captar) / ficar (namorar).

They are making out a check to us. I simply can't make out what he's trying to say. They made out at the party last night.

Make up = inventar (criar) / fazer as pazes.

She made up an excuse for being late. They had a fight but later made up.

Make up for = compensar.

She bought him a gift to make up for missing his birthday.

Make sure = certificar-se.

Make sure you lock the door, ok?

Make it = ter sucesso.

He made it to the top of the company.

8) TO PUT = pôr, colocar

Put aside = economizar.

I've been putting some money aside every month for emergency needs.

Put away = guardar.

Put your clothes away, right now.

Put off = adiar.

Mr. Starks keeps putting off our fun night out paid by the company.

Put on = vestir/ligar algo.

Please, put on some decent clothes. Can you put on some music?

Put up = erguer (construir).

They're putting up a new building.

Put up with = tolerar.

I don't put up with fake people.

Put out = apagar fogo.

The firemen put out the fire quickly.

9) TO RUN = correr

Run after = correr atrás.

I ran after the thief for two blocks.

Run away = fugir.

The boy ran away from home.

Run into = encontrar sem marcar/colidir.

Guess who I ran into this morning? She ran into a tree while driving.

Run out of = ficar sem.

I'm running out of money.

Run over = atropelar.

The cat was run over by a car.

Run by = consultar.

Can I run this idea by you tomorrow?

Run down = ficar sem energia.

I've been feeling run down lately.

10) TO TAKE = tomar, levar

Take after = assemelhar-se a.

I took after my grandfather.

Take away = levar embora.

Make sure to take the dishes away.

Take down = anotar.

Don't forget to take down some notes.

Take off = tirar (despir) / decolar / ter sucesso.

The doctor told her to take off her clothes when she only had a cold. Jane's airplane has taken off already. Her career really took off after she dated him.

Take out = levar pra fora / pagar pra alguém.
Take out the trash. It smells in here. I'll take you out for dinner tonight.

Take over = assumir o controle.
I'm taking over this department from now on.

Take apart = desmontar.
You must take it apart to fix it.

Take out on = descontar.
Don't take your frustration out on me.

11) TO TURN = girar, virar

Turn on = ligar/excitar.
Can you turn on the TV, please? Whispering in my ear turns me on.

Turn off = desligar / perder o interesse.
Turn off the lights when you come. Her bad attitude really turns me off.

Turn up = aumentar / aparecer inesperadamente.
Can you turn up the music? She turned up late for the meeting.

Turn down = abaixar/recusar.
Turn down the TV, it's too loud. He turned down the job offer.

Turn out = acontecer.
The event turned out to be a success.

Turn into = transformar-se.
The caterpillar turned into a butterfly.

Turn around = virar.
Turn around and look at the sunset.

Outros Phrasal Verbs

Ask out = convidar pra sair.
Why don't you ask her out?

Back up = apoiar/dar ré.
I will always back you up! Could you back up just a little, please?

Blow out = apagar/ganhar de forma esmagadora.
He blew out the candles after we sang Happy Birthday. Our team blew out the competition last night.

Blow up = explodir/perder a paciência.
That gas leak could blow up the house. She blew up at her brother for breaking the phone.

Clear up = esclarecer.
Let me clear up this misunderstanding.

Fill in = preencher (ordem).
Fill in the blanks using the verbs in the parenthesis.

Fill out = preencher (ação).
Do I have to fill out the entire form?

Find out = descobrir.
I found out the truth yesterday.

Let down = decepcionar.
I will never let you down.

Throw up = vomitar.
My wife was throwing up last night.

Work out = malhar / funcionar.
I've been working out twice a week. Everything worked out in the end.

Apply for = candidatar-se.
He didn't apply for the job.

Care for = cuidar / gostar.
We need to care for our brothers. He doesn't care for spicy food.

Cheat on = trair / enganar.
I will never cheat on my girlfriend. He cheated on the test for sure.

Pick up = pegar algo ou alguém.
Can you pick me up after class?